

Denver Public Schools 2009 CSAP Highlights

Four-Year Growth in Proficiency Outpaces State

16 Schools Post Double-Digit Proficiency/Above Gains In Two Content Areas for Third Year in a Row

Elementary Schools

Amessee
Beach Court
Brown
Johnson
Lowry
Montclair
Smith
University Park

Middle Schools

Hill

High Schools

Contemporary Learning Academy
Denver Online High School
JFK High School

K-8 Schools

Connections Academy
Bryant Webster
Highline Academy
Odyssey

DPS High-Growth Schools

(Growth Index of 65 or Higher in All Subjects)

A growth score above the 50th percentile means the students at that school made progress at a rate that's higher than half the other schools in the state. A score in the 65th percentile or above is designated by the state as "High Growth."

School	Reading	Writing	Math	Total
Beach Court Elementary	77.5	85	88	250.5
West Denver Preparatory	65.5	90	84	239.5
Denver School of Science & Technology	65	87	76	228
McMeen Elementary	73	72	70	215
Stedman Elementary	65	75.5	74.5	215
Steck Elementary	65	75	75	215
Cowell Elementary	77.5	68	66	211.5
Steele Elementary	67.5	71	65	203.5

23 DPS Schools Recognized by CDE for High Growth

(These schools posted growth percentiles of 60 or better in at least one subject for each of the past three years.)

Amesse Elementary School
Asbury Elementary School
Bromwell Elementary School
Denver School of Science and Technology
Grant Ranch K-8 School
Hill Campus of Arts and Sciences
KIPP Sunshine Peak Academy
Lincoln Elementary School
McKinley-Thatcher Elementary School
McMeen Elementary School
Odyssey Charter Elementary School

Omar D. Blair Charter School
Polaris at Ebert Elementary School
Schmitt Elementary School
Slavens K-8 School
Steck Elementary School
Stedman Elementary School
Steele Elementary School
Teller Elementary School
University Park Elementary School
West Denver Preparatory Charter School
Whittier K-8 School
Wyatt-Edison Charter Elementary School