

Tom Gamel

Chairman, Rockmont Capital Partners, Ltd.

DPS Foundation board member since February 2009

Tom Gamel is chairman of Rockmont Capital Partners, Ltd., an investment and management company. Gamel also is the major owner and chairman of Timpte Industries, Inc., a manufacturer of hopper semi-trailers with a manufacturing plant in Nebraska. He holds a degree from the University of Notre Dame.

Through Rockmont, Gamel is an owner and management participant in other private companies involved in manufacturing, construction, real estate, oil and gas, service and investments. Gamel has a wide range of prior experience as a community leader, including previously serving as a trustee of the Denver Zoo, chairman of Colorado's Ocean Journey, a trustee of the Denver Boy Scouts and a board member of Metro State College Foundation.

Gamel is a native of Denver, with four children and nine grandchildren.