

Bruce Hoyt

President, St. Charles Capital and DPS Board of Education
DPS Foundation board member since December 2005

Mr. Hoyt was elected to the Board of Education for the Denver Public Schools in November 2003. He is a managing director with the Investment Banking firm of St. Charles Capital, specializing in mergers and acquisition work. Prior to this, he worked for Great-West Life Assurance Company and Boettcher & Co.

Hoyt is a native of Colorado and attended Phillips and Carson elementary schools, Hill Middle School and George Washington and Manual high schools. He received his B.A. from Northwestern University and his Masters in Management from Northwestern University's Kellogg Graduate School of Management.

Among his community service, he is the co-founder and former president of Friends of Manual High School, Inc., a former board member and past chairman of Mile High Child Care, and a former board member and past vice-chairman of the Mile High United Way.

He and his wife Heidi Hummel Hoyt have two children, Henry (14) and Isabel (12). Henry is a freshman at South High School and Isabel is a 7th grader at Slavens School.

He is an avid sports fan and lists tennis, cycling and reading as some of his favorite activities.