

Donna Lynne, DrPH, Chair

Group President, Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc. & Kaiser Foundation Hospitals President, Kaiser Foundation Health Plan of Colorado

Donna Lynne, DrPH, is a group president for Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., Kaiser Foundation Hospitals and is responsible for its Pacific Northwest, Ohio and Georgia regions. Also, she is the president of Kaiser Foundation Health Plan of Colorado. There are more than 525,000 Kaiser Permanente members in Colorado and 870,000 in the other three regions Lynne oversees, with a combined total revenue base of more than $6 billion. Kaiser Permanente Colorado owns and operates more than 20 full-service medical offices in Denver, Boulder and Southern Colorado and is the state's largest group medical practice organization.

From 1998 to April 2005, Lynne was the Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer for Group Health Incorporated, a $2.5-billion care organization. In the mid-90s, Lynne was the Executive Director of the New York Business Group on Health. Lynne spent 20 years in various positions in New York City government, including First Deputy Commissioner, Office of Labor Relations; Director, Mayor's Office of Operations; Senior Vice President, New York City Health and Hospitals Corporation.

Lynne was an International Executive Fellow with the International Federation of Health Plans. She was awarded the Denver Business Journal's 2008 Outstanding Women in Business award. Lynne received the "2009 Distinguished Coloradan Award" from the University of Colorado Denver School of Pharmacy. She received the President's Award from Women in Health Management and the Health Care Leadership Award from the New York Business Group on Health.

Lynne is a mentor with America's Health Insurance Plans Foundation. She is a member of the Board of Directors for eHealth Initiative and the Foundation for eHealth Initiative. In Colorado, she currently serves on the boards of Colorado Legacy Foundation, Colorado Mountain Club, Colorado Regional Health Information Organization, Denver Museum of Nature and Science and Denver Public Schools Foundation. Lynne is on the Executive Committee and Board of Directors of the Denver Metro Chamber of Commerce, Teach for America - Colorado Regional Advisory Board and US Bank Denver Advisory Board. She is a member of Colorado Concern and Colorado Forum. In 2010, she was one of 16 state-wide transition co-chairs and Personnel and Administration Committee co-chair for Colorado Gov. Hickenlooper.

Lynne has a bachelor's degree in Economics and Political Science from University of New Hampshire, a master's degree in Public Administration from George Washington University and a doctorate in Public Health from Columbia University. She also holds the designation of Certified Employee Benefits Specialist from the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans/University of Pennsylvania Wharton School. Lynne is an Adjunct Associate Professor of Public Health at Columbia University.

Lynne enjoys skiing, mountaineering, cycling and reading. She resides in Morrison, Colo., and has three children, Rachel, 31, James, 29, and Ben, 27.